there is a fundamental relationship between philosophy and literature in their attempt to interpret and reflect reality both philosophy and literature are arts or at least aspects of art aesthetics otherwise known as the philosophy of art exposes very clearly the link between philosophy and literature on the other hand through its major genres namely drama prose and poetry the link between literature and philosophy is made bare moreover philosophy in playing its second order role delves into the literary world or the discipline of literature with its philosophical paraphernalia of criticality reflectivity analyticity and rigour among others to investigate activities of literary professionals especially as they relate to interpretation and understanding of the nature of the reality of human existential experience it is on the basis of this that this book proposes and exposes the relationship between philosophy and the literary arts this it does by using aesthetics as an aspect of philosophy to elucidate the nature and function of philosophy in literary art as well as their relationship with each other it also uses drama poetry and prose as genres of literature to enunciate the nature and function of literary art the argument here is that both philosophical al aesthetics and literature drama poetry and prose are geared toward interpretation and reflection of a people s worldview man s existential experience the nature of human society and by extension the nature of reality in general thus to succeed in its avowed aim the book is divided into seven 7 chapters the first and second chapters clarify the meaning of philosophy literature and philosophy of literature the third and fourth chapters are concerned with aesthetics as philosophy of art the nature of art where prose drama and poetry are examined as literary arts the fifth chapter examines the role of philosophy and literary arts in understanding reality the sixth chapter examines the nature and role of intention and analogy in the arts the last chapter is a conclusion of all that has been discussed the motivation for compiling this book is to fill the obvious gap found in textbooks on aesthetics or philosophy of arts no textbook written on this subject has dealt with the relationship between aesthetics and literary art and the role of literature and aesthetics in understanding and interpreting reality it is my sincere hope that this book will not only fill this gap but also serve as useful material for students and lecturers of the philosophy of literature and philosophy of art aesthetics
